

Worksheet on Foreign Words & Phrases

Part A – Fill in the Blank with Foreign Expressions. Choose the most appropriate foreign phrase from the options given.

- | | | |
|--|---|--|
| 1. The politician's speech was dismissed as mere _____, lacking any concrete solutions.(Ad nauseam / Ad hoc / Alma mater / Vox populi) | 12. Despite criticism, he continued to work, convinced that history would prove him _____.(De jure / In toto / Bona fide / Sui generis) | 22. The general was admired for his _____, or presence of mind during a crisis.(Savoir-faire / Mea culpa / Erratum / Ad infinitum) |
| 2. The treaty was signed _____, ensuring privacy away from the media's eyes.(In camera / In situ / In extremis / In loco parentis) | 13. She justified her decision by saying it was made _____, in the heat of the moment.(Ad hoc / Ad nauseam / Post mortem / Raison d'être) | 23. He accused the journalist of writing _____, a personal attack rather than objective reporting.(Obiter dictum / Bête noire / Ad hominem / Status quo) |
| 3. The lawyer filed a petition of _____ to secure the prisoner's release.(Habeas corpus / Mea culpa / Corpus delicti / Ipso facto) | 14. The teacher reminded students not to plagiarise, since academic honesty is a matter of _____.(Bona fide / Ipso facto / Mea culpa / Ad libitum) | 24. The debate quickly descended into _____, with both sides refusing to listen.(Non sequitur / Coup d'état / Mea culpa / Ennui) |
| 4. His sudden arrival acted as a kind of _____, resolving the narrative too neatly.(Deus ex machina / Magnum opus / Ad libitum / Caveat emptor) | 15. His alma mater invited him to deliver a convocation speech after two decades.(Alma mater / Alter ego / Corpus delicti / Vox populi) | 25. Her theory remained merely _____, until supported by empirical evidence.(A priori / Corpus delicti / Sic transit gloria mundi / Vox populi) |
| 5. Though she lacked experience, her boss gave her _____ to handle the project independently.(Carte blanche / Tabula rasa / Pax Romana / Prima facie) | 16. The king ruled with _____, making decisions based only on personal will.(Laissez-faire / De facto / Tabula rasa / Persona non grata) | 26. The scholar emphasized the principle of "_____", or the greatest good for the greatest number.(Summum bonum / Pax Romana / In extremis / Tabula rasa) |
| 6. Philosophers often debate whether morality is relative or whether it exists _____.(A priori / Ad hoc / Sub judice / In absentia) | 17. The scientist's discovery was published in a journal known for its motto "_____" meaning "Truth conquers all."(Veritas vincit / Sic transit gloria mundi / In vino veritas / Carpe diem) | 27. The monk lived by the motto "_____" which means "remember you will die."(Memento mori / Mea culpa / Requiem / Ultimatum) |
| 7. His biography is widely regarded as his _____, the most important work of his career.(Magnum opus / Tour de force / Corpus delicti / Status quo) | 18. During the Renaissance, many thinkers believed in the value of "_____" or the pursuit of knowledge for its own sake.(Sine qua non / Summum bonum / Panacea / Pax Romana) | 28. The court declared the contract void _____, because it violated fundamental rights.(Ex post facto / Ipso facto / Ad libitum / In absentia) |
| 8. Their romance embodied the spirit of the _____, full of indulgence and pleasure.(Dolce vita / In vino veritas / Vox populi / Panacea) | 19. He was praised for being a true _____, a citizen of the world.(Cosmopolitan / Tabula rasa / Mea culpa / Persona non grata) | 29. The CEO enjoyed complete authority and often acted as a true _____.(Autocrat / Alter ego / Persona non grata / Vox populi) |
| 9. He was known as a _____, constantly prying into others' business.(Bête noire / Alter ego / Non sequitur / Noli me tangere) | 20. The witness testified, but it was clear that he spoke only _____, not the entire truth.(In toto / Verbatim / Sub judice / Ipso facto) | 30. The defence argued that the confession was obtained _____, under duress.(In extremis / Pro tempore / Ex gratia / In situ) |
| 10. The court proceedings emphasized the voice of the people, or the _____.(Vox populi / In medias res / Au revoir / Mea culpa) | 21. The law stands firm, regardless of individual opinions, under the | |
| 11. The rebellion spread rapidly, creating a sense of _____, or | | |

Part B: Use the following in a grammatically correct and meaningful sentence of your own. Alma mater

1. Quasi:
2. Panacea:
3. Caveat:

4. Hubris:
5. Nota bene:
6. Hyperbole:
7. En masse:
8. Et al.:
9. Faux pas:
10. Habeas data:
11. Quorum:
12. Doppelgänger:
13. De facto:
14. Per se:
15. Guerrilla:
16. Prima facie:
17. Quorum:
18. Fiat:
19. Curriculum vitae:
20. Carpe Diem:
21. Consensus:
22. Id est (i.e.):
23. Status Quo:
24. Erratum:
25. Veni, vidi, vici: